Dear Mr. Casey:

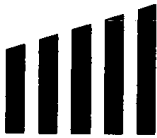

On behalf of the chief executives of the high growth companies that are members of the American Business Conference, I would like to thank you for taking time out of your busy schedule to have breakfast with a group of ABC members on March 9th. I cannot begin to tell you how pleased our members were to have had the chance to discuss critical national policy issues with you. Once again, let me express my gratitude to you for giving the American Business Conference this wonderful opportunity.

Best wishes
